SEC. 8. Officers of the Army and Navy, eligible to election, if elected while on duty in the service of the United States, may pay Fifty Dollars in lieu of all fees and dues thereafter, so long as they shall remain on the active list.

SEC. 9. Any candidate under the age of twenty-five years elected to resident membership within three years of the date of his degree, may pay the entrance fee, and for the year in which he is elected, and one year thereafter, the dues of non-resident members, provided, however, that while paying such dues he shall not be eligible to office, and that upon the expiration of the period above specified, he shall be liable for the regular annual dues of resident members, but not for the additional twenty-five dollars required of non-resident members becoming resident members under Section 1 of this Article. In the case of resident members elected under the provisions of this section between June 1st and January 1st, the dues for the current year in which they are elected shall be Twelve Dollars and Fifty Cents.
